

"Lost" Paradise

By: Kathleen Bracke
Assistant Feature Editor

When thinking of reasons to continue with life, few come to mind. However, one sticks with me like honey to toast. What else could I be thinking of except arguably one of the best shows ever created, "Lost." Even though the title pretty much sums up the plot, there is more than what appears at the surface.

When discussing the show with fellow "Lostaholics," my eyes light up like those of a kid getting a train set for Christmas. My heart seems empty without the show, like a lunch without fruit loops, and their break of episodes nearly killed me. After three months of rehab, I'm proud to say I'm back on my feet. If there are any of you out there who haven't seen an episode, I strongly suggest sitting down and watching television history being made.

Along with other fans, I have thought of opening up our very own MHS Lost Fan Club. I feel that it would bring a whole new species of people together. I sense this action would be doing a service to mankind. Plus, it has won a couple of awards including "Best Television Series Ever." So whether you are looking for something to do on a Wednesday night, or just tired of feeling lonely, I strongly urge you to tune into "Lost."

Daydreaming during school, Arti Bhakta wonders if her name and her crush's name would blend naturally. (Photo By: Yada)

Your love life in six questions

By: Kathleen Bracke and Katie Goebel
Feature Editors

- You see your love at a basketball game. You...
 - Smile and turn away blushing
 - Duck and hide under the bleachers
 - You casually flip your hair and make your way towards him
- You heard your guy has a crush on your best friend. You...
 - Make it a point to avoid him
 - Immediately go to Whitey's and pick up a tub
 - Secretly put laxatives in your best friend's coffee drink
- If your life was a movie he would play...
 - Ron Burgundy
 - Napoleon Dynamite
 - James Bond
- You discover he has a secret passion for art. You...
 - Study the French impressionists and slyly bring up a discussion in class
 - quietly study your finger paintings at home
 - Invite him to an art exhibit to make your move
- Your school dance is around the corner. You...
 - Have your friend talk to him about possible date options
 - Cut out pictures from a prom magazine and paste his face on them
 - Ask him over the PA system in front of the whole school
- You're struggling in Algebra and your future husband is a math whiz. You...
 - Ask him questions in class
 - Consider the money he could make you with his expertise
 - Ask him to help you outside of class

If You Answered Mostly A's you...

Seem to know how to work it. However, make sure you are getting your message across. If all things seem to be going well for you and Prince Charming, try taking your relationship to the next level...Sadies perhaps?

If You Answered Mostly B's you...

Know what you want but don't always go for it. While he may possess the qualities your looking for you don't always show how you really feel. Instead of ducking behind corners this Valentine's Day, strike up a small conversation with your love.

If You Answered Mostly C's you...

Are the kind of girl that doesn't take no from anyone. However, this tactic could scare off some guys. Try taking a slower approach to your love life. Instead of taking the reins, let someone else do some of the work.

Weekends spent in Mo-Town

Staff Editorial

- | | | | |
|---------------------|---------------------|--------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. Midnight Bowling | 8. Road trip | 17. Video games | 26. Seeing a play |
| 2. Sleep | 9. Guitar hero | 18. "Never have I ever" | 27. Cruising the avenue |
| 3. Work | 10. Coffee houses | 19. Church | 28. Eating Whitey's |
| 4. Pond Hockey | 11. Shopping | 20. Sledding | 29. Baking |
| 5. Basketball games | 12. Paintball | 21. Watching television | 30. Texting |
| 6. Make nachos | 13. Extreme biking | 22. Magazine reading | 31. Dreaded homework |
| 7. Go to the movies | 14. La Flama | 23. Hot tubbing | 32. Playing with pets |
| | 15. Regular bowling | 24. Working out at the Y | 33. Basket weaving |
| | 16. Make movies | 25. Seeing a concert | 34. Surfing online |